

Read Matthew 7:12-29

Why is Jesus a stable foundation upon which to build a life?

Why are materialism, sport, education, philosophies, traditions of men, man's wisdom and even religion unstable foundations upon which to build your life, even in part?

Rock or sand: where are your foundations? (Matthew 7:24-27).

What sorts of things do we need to cut away in our lives so that we can reach the rock, that is Jesus? Are you willing to do this with the help of the Holy Spirit?

When we hear and read God's Word, do we obey as we should, or do we do little or nothing about it?

What steps can you take to ensure that you will build the right foundations and not be found wanting when the storms of life come your way?

Read 1 Corinthians 3:1-3. Why is this passage still as relevant today to many in the church as it was nearly 2,000 years ago?

Why are so many Christians satisfied with immaturity in God?

Are there any areas in your life that you have neglected or where you have compromised?

What is spiritual milk and who is this given to?
